Game Time Limit	New inning cannot begin after time limit. New inning begins immediately after third out of the previous inning. During weather delays, the clock is suspended until play restarts.						lelays, the clock is
Weather	Suspending play due to lightning and weather-related incidents will be governed by the home team's community rules. If a community does not have defined rules, the NFHS rules are in effect. NFHS rules call for a 30-minute suspension of play when lightning is seen or thunder is heard.  Any subsequent lightning strikes or thunder after the beginning of the 30-minute count should reset the clock and another count should begin.

Sliding	For all NBSA games, High School Rules will apply. Refer to NFHS rules Sections 2-32 & 8-4-2b which is published at the end of these rules.  NOTE: A runner is NOT required to slide. If the runner does slide, it must be a legal slide (see rule below).  If the runner doesn't slide, he must avoid interfering with the play. Ejection of the runner is the umpire's discretion if malicious intent is determined
Lead-off	No. One warning per team. Runner will be called out if leading off.  Maximum of 5 fee					Yes	Yes
Stealing		No		Yes, 3rd base only. Ball must cross plate before leaving base.	Yes	Yes	Yes
Stealing Home	No			Limited  I maximum per inning as a result of a steal or pitchercatcher exchange (wild pitch, passed ball, catcher to pitcher toss)	No limitation	No limitation
	G Clarifications:  1) If a runner on 3rd scores on a steal or as part of a pitcher-catcher exchange and the scoring team has already scored their 1 allowable run for the inning, the runner is returned to 3rd base without penalty.  2) If a runner on 3rd attempts to score on a steal or as part of a pitcher-catcher exchange and the scoring team has already scored their 1 allowable run for is tagged out before reaching the plate, that runner is out. The stealing home rule does not protect that runner from being put out.  3) A failed suicide squeeze is considered a steal attempt.

Absent Without Injury or Illness	For all NBSA games, if a player becomes absent during the game for a reason other than injury or illness the player will be skipped in the lineup without penalty. A player who leaves the game early is not required to play 2 innings in the infield.
Ejected Players, Coaches and Managers	Any player, coach or manager ejected, for any reason, will receive a mandatory 1 game suspension to be served during the next NBSA game.  Additional suspensions and/or disciplinary actions may be enforced pending the NBSA board review. During the suspension the player, coach or manager may not enter the confines of the park or recreational area that supports the field of play. Failure to report a suspended player, coach or manager will be grounds for additional suspensions
